Announcement by Faubus Is No Surprise

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Orval E. Faubus' unsurprising announcement Wednesday that he was running for a sixth term started no one into making rash statements.

Those mentioned as potential candidates made it known that their obligations were elsewhere, and those committed to opposing Faubus in the Democratic primary said they had expected him to run again.

The governor's father, Sam Faubus of Combs, had this to say:

"If he thinks he can be elected, well glory to him. I think if you get a work horse and he gives satisfaction, keep him. Of course, I don't believe in getting in there and staying until you get too old, but Orval is not too old."

Joe Hubbard of Russellville, who has filed as a Democratic candidate for governor, said he would give Faubus a hot primary race.

"I think I can get Faubus or I wouldn't have gotten into the race," Hubbard said.

Ticket Closes on Wednesday Yet Candidates Appear to Be Fewer Than in the Past

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.

Orval E. Faubus has two opponents—fewer than usual—and it is generally a good year for incumbents as the Democratic primary filing deadline nears.

Only five filing days remain until the ticket closes at noon

next Wednesday.

Most of the incumbents who are seeking re-election have so far escaped without opposition.

None of the four congressmen has a Democratic opponent at this point and none is expected.

All four escaped without primary opposition two years ago.

E. T. (Gene) Ridgeway and

Joe Hubbard, both political unknowns, have filed against Faubus. Roy Riales of Mena, a former state senator, has filed against Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon.

But Secretary of State Kelly

Bryant, Auditor Jimmie Jones

and Treasurer Nancy Hall are without opposition so far.

At this point there is no candidate for attorney general or land commissioner but Atty.

Gen. Bruce Bennett and Land

Commissioner Sam Jones are expected to seek re-election;

Bennett plans to file next week.

There are three chancery

judgeships open and two incumbents, Murray O. Reed in the 1st District and Sam W. Garratt in the 3rd, have filed unopposed.

There is no candidate yet in the 6th District where Wesley

Howard, the judge in the controversial Archie Cude child custody case, is the incumbent.

Harry Crumpler of Magnolia is the only candidate so far to succeed the late Circuit Judge

Gus Jones in the 13th District.

Among the state senators,

Russell Elrod in the 1st District, Dan White in the 4th,

John O. Moore in the 8th, Max

J. Howell in the 15th, Morrell

Gathright and Knox Nelson in the 20th, J. Lee Bearden in the 24th and Clarence E. Bell and

W. K. Ingram in the 25th have filed for re-election without opposition.

Sen. Graham Nixon of Conway has drawn opposition from Ammon Ward of Clinton and J. C.

Dawson of Conway in the 14th

District.

Sen. Dan T. Sprick of Little

Rock is opposed by Cal Ledbetter Jr. of Little Rock for Position 3 in the 15th District. Rep.

Jim Brandon and Everett Tucker Jr. are candidates for Position 2 which became vacant with the death of Sen. Ellis

Fagan last summer.

Forrest Jeffrey of Batesville has filed against Sen. Robert

Harvey of Swift in the 18th

District. J. T. Gunter of Austin

opposes Sen. Charles L. George in the 19th District and Sen.

Cecil McNeil of Rector has two opponents — Leon Beaton of Marmaduke and M. O. Raley of Paragould in the 23rd District.

There are three candidates for Position 2 in the 26th District, the post held for years by the late Sen. Tom Allen. Mrs.

Allen, John D. Miller of Brinkley and Lester Graves of Sultgart have filed for the position.

So far, the secretary of state's office has received only two practices pledges from only two

Republican candidates, Hal L.

Cochran of Fort Smith, running for Congress in the 3rd District, and Frank H. Nelson, a candidate for state senator in the 1st

District.

President Calls Legion Dist. Auxiliary Officers

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said today he would like to confer personally with Republican presidential aspirants so they could chart a positive course for discussing foreign policy problems.

Johnson, at a news conference in the rose garden outside his office, announced that foreign policy intelligence briefings would be offered to seven presidential aspirants — including Democratic Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama.

He said Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Viet Nam, and a potential GOP nominee, already gets the information.

In addition to Wallace, the briefings will be offered to Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York; Sen. Barry Goldwater; Harold Stassen; Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon; Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania; and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith. All are potential Republican nominees.

On other points, Johnson declared:

He saw a very few civil rights demonstrators Wednesday at the opening of the New York World's Fair whom he considered rude. "I pity them," he said. "They served no good purpose."

The President will tour areas of heavy unemployment and poverty in Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania Friday.

Additional defense savings of $68 million a year were announced.

Johnson said the installations affected by the economies and specific actions to be taken would be announced later by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Johnson raised the prospect of spending more money on the anti-Communist war in South Viet Nam. And he said he hoped "we'll see some other flags in there" as a result of discussions at the recent conference of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Johnson Victor in Union, Rail Agreement

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A give

and take agreement has ended

the threat of a nationwide railroad strike with President

Johnson a victor in the toughest domestic test of his administration.

A few hours after the agreement was reached, two dissident union officials threatened to strike part of the New York

Central Railroad. But sources involved in the negotiations in Washington discounted the possibility that the threat would be carried out.

Johnson, obviously elated, went before television cameras

Wednesday night to announce settlement of the long, highly complex dispute a little more than 48 hours before a scheduled strike threatened to tie the nation's economy in knots.

The agreement in effect gave union members financial gains in exchange for letting the railroads reduce employment. Just how many jobs will be affected or how much money the railroads may save won't be known for some time after the general agreement is translated into contract language.

In herding union and management negotiators success-fully through 13 days of emergency White House talks, Johnson stamped his brand indelibly on U.S. labor history and achieved what two former presidents, Congress, the courts and five years of bargaining had failed to accomplish.

"This agreement prevents — we hope for all time — a crippling and disastrous strike in the railroad industry," Johnson said.

Negotiators for the five unions whose members run the trains and spokesmen for nearly 200 railroad companies reached satisfaction at the outcome.

The agreement ended the threat of a scheduled strike at one minute after midnight Friday night. Johnson had estimated a strike would have killed 7 million American workers, endangered the health conditions and virtually paralyzed the economy.

Cites Danger of Illegal Gambling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rev. Robert A. Fudge of Hot Springs told the Arkansas Christian Churches convention here Wednesday night that the long-time existence of illegal gambling in Hot Springs endangered social and personal integrity.

Fudge, president of the group, had a verbal exchange earlier this year with Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who ordered the resort city casinos closed — accusing the governor of shutting the casinos for political reasons.

Fudge told the convention "When the power of any group, be it management, labor or gambling syndicates, can dictate which laws shall be enforced, or which individual shall be immune to enforcement, social integrity is lost and personal integrity is in ultimate jeopardy."

Can't Okay All Racial Activities

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Council of Churches was told today that "Christian people concerned for racial justice cannot give blanket endorsement to all types of racial demonstrations."

Rev. Sam J. Allen, executive secretary of the council, told a morning assembly that people "must be careful not to damage or weaken their Christian witness in race relations by identifying themselves with the radical and excessive elements in the civil rights movement."

He placed among the excessive actions the demonstrations at the World's Fair opening and "the type that seeks to create a crisis of chaos in Mississippi this summer."

"The kind of demonstrations that Christians need to make this summer is that of calling men to repent before God of their racial prejudices and hatreds, and seek the divine forgiveness which is available," he said.

Allen said, "The great scandal of the church today is found where men who bear the name Christian have closed their churches to Negroes and have failed to take a clear stand for racial justice."

He also told the assembly that, "Churches have an opportunity to work together in confronting the gambling problem in Arkansas, and to throw

Americans Killed in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — An American Ranger officer was killed and another American wounded in a clash with Communist Viet Cong units 25 miles west of Saigon today, reliable American sources reported.

An American spokesman reported seven Vietnamese Rangers were killed and eight wounded in the clash but would not confirm the American casualties. Such official confirmation usually is up to 12 hours in coming.

The latest American death brought the total Americans killed in action in Viet Nam to 130. Thirty-four have died in action this year.

Morrilton May Get a Paper Mill

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — Morrilton interests are negotiating for a $20 million pulp paper mill to employ 300 persons, it was learned today.

It was reported that the Morrilton City Council had instituted condemnation proceedings on 57 acres of land, part of a 400-acre tract on which the mill would be built.

The condemnation proceedings reportedly were begun because the family that owned the land declined to sell it, a source said.

The mill would be located 12 miles southeast of Morrilton, south of the Arkansas River on the Conway-Perry county line. City officials refused to talk about it. Mayor Thomas Hickey said the plant was not a certainty. Morrilton leaders went to Green Bay, Wis., last week to talk to officials of the Green Bay Packing Co. about the plant.

North Little Rock turned down this mill some time ago because of public reaction to the smell it might create.

"It was thought that the mill might stink Rockefeller off the hill," one source said, "but the wind will blow the smell east, toward Conway." Conway would be less than 20 miles from the mill.

Winthrop Rockefeller lives atop Petit Jean Mountain, south of Morrilton.

The plant reportedly would be financed in part by Act 9 revenue bonds.

California Politics in a Turmoil

By MORRIS LANDSBERG

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Word from Washington, legal and medical, threw California's political campaign into quiet turmoil today.

All preparations for the June 2 presidential primary came to a complete halt, by order of Justice William O. Douglas of the Supreme Court.

And Sen. Clair Engle's return to the hospital revived speculation—denied with practiced regularity—that his health would force him to give up his fight for re-election.

It also brought into the open persistent reports that jobs paying $25,000 or more a year are waiting for the Democratic senator, 52, felled by brain surgery last August, if he quits the contest for his party's nomination.

Harold Stassen caused an unprecedented situation by appealing a State Supreme Court decision which denied him a place on the Republican presidential ballot.

The onetime Minnesota governor seeks to join Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in competition for California's 86 votes at the Republican National Convention.

Stassen needed 13,702 signatures of registered voters to qualify. Only some 9,000 were certified as valid. Stassen backers told the Supreme Court in their appeal that they presented 25,000, but that county clerks failed to make a complete examination of all the affidavits.

Justice Douglas Wednesday ordered Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan to direct the 58 counties to hold everything on election preparations pending a decision. Jordan followed through promptly.

Manhunt on for Thieves

ONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — A manhunt was under way today northeast of Bowman in Craighead County for two or three men who stole the car of the mayor of Trumann Wednesday night.

The men outdistanced one law officer in the Thunderbird, then ditched it and fled on foot when a country road ran into a field. State Police, fighting a cloud of dust a quarter of a mile behind, couldn't overtake the men before they got into the woods.

The car was parked in front of the home of Mayor Jerry Sims of Trumann.

Planes Ready for Trouble With Cuba

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hundreds of U.S. jet fighter bombers and attack planes — each capable of hurling tons of explosives — are poised within striking reach of Cuba, a check disclosed today.

A significant force of these high speed, powerfully armed U.S. jets could be over carefully pinpointed Cuban anti-aircraft missile batteries within minutes of any order to go.

Some of them are posted at Air Force and Navy bases in Florida. Others are aboard two big aircraft carriers now in the Mayport, Fla., area.

President Johnson, the State Department and other U.S. officials and unofficial sources have been warning Cuba of possible serious consequences if Fidel Castro follows through on his threat to shoot down American reconnaissance planes.

These U.S. warnings have been prompted by a belief that the Soviets may be about to turn over to the Cubans 24 complexes of SA-2 anti-aircraft missiles.

It was such a missile, able to reach 80,000 feet, that downed a high altitude U.S. U2 reconnaissance plane over Cuba at the peak of the 1962 crisis.

Pentagon sources said no precautionary alerts have been ordered.

The most probable form of retaliation, observers believe, would be a swift blow to knock out one or more of the Cuban anti-aircraft missile complexes.

Almost certainly it would be a high explosive attack, although all the U.S. jets are capable of nuclear warfare.

Coming in low under radar, the American fighter bombers and attack jets could hit fast and hard before the defenses could react, sources said.

The United States gets photographic coverage of all of Cuba by high altitude planes at least once a week.

The meeting was then adjourn- ed to meet on May 14 at the clubhouse. Refreshments were served by Ronnie Smith and Johnnie Breeding.

Potluck Party Held At Country Club

The Hope Country Club was the scene of a Potluck and Cards entertainment Saturday night, April 18, and the host couples were Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, Don Evans, Jack Gardner, and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Brents.

An arrangement of white daisies in white container was seen on the mantle, while pink roses centered the buffet table. A delicious meal was served to a good crowd, some of whom stayed for cards at seven tables.

At the conclusion of play Mrs. Bill Routton was high scorer, and John Hatley was second high. A prize went to Mrs. Brack Schenck.

DeAnn Lilac Club

Mrs. Hollis Samuel and Mrs. Henry Willett entertained the DeAnn Lilac Garden Club on Tuesday, April 21 in the Sam- uel home. Vice-president Mrs. C. R. Samuel called the meeting to order. One hostess, Mrs. Wil- lett, read Luke 16:14 for the devotion and the other hostess, Mrs. Samuel, led in prayer.

Ten members answered the roll call with "My Favorite Vac- ation." Mrs. Wayward gave an informative talk on "Proper Table Setting" and that includ- ed flowers, silver, china, and linen. In judging the Crescent Arrangements brought by mem- bers, first place went to Mrs. J. C. Burke and second to Mrs. Jack Hartsfield.

The members and three guests, Mrs. David Samuel, Mrs. Eros Samuel, and Mrs. Ansley Willett, were served strawberry shortcake and cold drinks.

DOROTHY DIX

WHAT TO DO ABOUT HUSBAND WHO SWEARS

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: I'm con- tinually embarrassed because of my husband's swearing. Sometimes he says unspeakable things when some small thing goes wrong. Our children hear him, think it's smart, and are picking up the habit. What causes some men to continually swear and use obscene words, and others not? How can I in- fluence my husband to curb this embarrassing trait? —J.S.

It's Just a Habit

Dear J. S.: Swearing is a hab- it, and once a man gets used to it at his job, it's very diffi- cult for him to control it at home. The result is embarrassment for a wife's family and friends. And worse yet, the chil- dren copy it. And it makes it hard for them to attract a desirable class of young friends.

Swearing is just a habit. Men use profane and shocking lan- guage largely for one purpose: to make them feel more mascu- line and important. Consci- ously lacking other qualities, they begin to use overstrong language to attract attention.

The habitual swearer usually has a limited vocabulary, ex- cept for swear words. Often, this habit prevents a man from rising substantially at his job. Unfair or not, those who do the promoting usually class him in the more ignorant group. Ten words, and his chances for a real promotion may be gone.

A reminder too this may help to curb your husband's swear- ing. Remind him that this hab- it is generally the tell-tale of a man who is conscious of his shortcomings, who is trying to bolster his ego through the false idea of how to be more masculine and important.

Different Kind of Swearing
Of course, the man who lets out an epithet or two when he accidentally bangs his thumb is something else again. He may not know its historic origin, but in effect, he's evoking the gods to come to his aid in revenge for the mishap, perhaps against the hammer, or against inani- mate objects in general.

In fact, cursing itself has its roots in primitive religion. But for the most part, it is re- versed as irreverence toward sacred things.

The habit's probably as old as man. As far back as the 15th century the French invent- ed a series of fictitious saints so they could swear without be- ing profane. Some of them were:

Queen were here this weekend and visited relatives and friends.

but some of the quotable words youngsters like to write on walls today come from the names of these imaginary saints the French devised 500 years ago.

It was the British who were to blame for the word "damn" about the time Columbus dis- covered America. And where- ever their troops or sailors went, they took the word with them. But even if this minor expletive is used by our more educated people today, frequent cursing and swearing is gener- ally the hallmark of the lower- class male groups. When you hear it, you'll know its user is trying to make up for some- thing he feels he lacks, and he's usually right, too. He is lacking.

SAIGON Viet Nam (AP) — Defense attorneys appealed for clemency today for Ngo Dinh Can, younger brother of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem. Can was sentenced Wednesday night to death on the guillotine.

The former overlord of cen- tral Viet Nam is expected to be executed within the next four days if the appeal is rejected by Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, the titular chief of state.

Can, 53, was convicted by a nine-man court on charges of murder, extortion and misuse of power. He was accused of planning and ordering the tor- ture murder of three persons in 1956, 1957 and 1958.

Can, the last close relative of Diem in South Viet Nam, de- nied all accusations during the six-day trial.

EAST KILBRIDE, Scotland (AP)—Employees of a stainless steel razor factory no longer shave at home. They take off the whiskers on company time.

The plant owners started the shave break to test their blade against a rival product. Un- marked samples of both are supplied the men, along with soap and after-shave lotion.

A spokesman said the in-shop shaving costs the company 50 pounds ($140) a week but will continue indefinitely.

"We get honest answers this way," he said, "and the men —they love the shave break."

Measured by Whitey Ford's meticulous standards, the 200th victory of his major league career was a complete success—strictly a one-swing job.

Ford, the ace left-hander of the New York Yankees who doubles as the pitching coach for the American League champions, put himself down for an A grade after winning No. 200 Wednesday night by blanking the Chicago White Sox 3-0 on six hits.

"I only went through one sweat shirt," said Ford, laughing. "I'm giving myself an excellent report for the game."

Ford's chart, when completed, will show he kept the White Sox off balance, allowing only one extra base hit and striking out two while issuing only one walk.

The record book, when revised, will show Ford the 61st pitcher in major league history to reach the 200-victory plateau.

The long, bright future also may be approaching for the Yankees, who marked their second victory in six games with still another achievement.

In the fifth inning, Cleve Boyer hit a homer—the first by a Yankee this season.

The Minnesota Twins hit three homers—by Tony Oliva, Rich Rollins and Don Mincher—and scored the winning run on a passed ball in a 7-6 triumph over Washington. In the only other AL game played, the Los Angeles Angels struck for two runs in the ninth and a 3-2 victory over Detroit.

Two games were postponed by rain—Boston at Baltimore and Cleveland at Kansas City.

In the National League, St. Louis made it seven losses in a row for the Los Angeles Dodgers by beating the world champions 7-6. San Francisco belted Milwaukee 8-6 and Houston shut out Cincinnati 2-0. The Chicago at New York and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh games were rained out.

Ford, who was the AL's winningest pitcher last year with a 24-7 record, was locked in a duel with White Sox starter Gary Peters until Boyer hit his bases-empty homer in the fifth.

Famed Rider Doesn't Plan Retirement

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

ALBANY, Calif. (AP)—John Longden, wealthy and a grandfather, slips on his bifocals to read the paper, yet the world's winningest jockey isn't even thinking of retiring because, "I don't know what else I'd do."

He also finds a definite riding advantage in being 57, explaining, "for some reason I'm not having any trouble making weight. For 25 years I had to go into the sweat room just about every day. No more."

"I guess I'm getting dried up, no trouble making 112 pounds."

Last Saturday Longden proved again his mettle as he piloted Real Good Deal to victory in the $59,900 California Derby and won $37,400 for the owners. The customary 10 per cent for the jockey earned Longden $3,740.

He doesn't need the money. Already a millionaire, Johnny owns a lovely home in Arcadia near Santa Anita in southern California. He goes there each weekend, then returns to Golden Gate Fields near San Francisco where the current California meeting is being held. He goes to bed early and arises at 6:30 by habit.

He defers to his age in accepting only three or four mounts a day instead of the six or seven when he was younger. In between he plays cards in the jockey room.

Longden has ridden 5,810 winners, more than any other jockey on the thoroughbred tracks and the mark may never be equalled.

He started riding in 1927. He won leading jockey honors for American tracks in 1938, 1947 and 1948. In 1943 he was aboard Count Fleet when he captured racing's Triple Crown—the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes. Only two 3-year-olds since then have duplicated the feat.

"I would say the Triple Crown was the high point of my career," Longden reflects. He rates winning it just as tough a job for man and horse then as it is now.

Looking ahead, he says, "I've got no idea of quitting. Sometimes I've thought about it. You do think of things like that. Sometimes you've got to quit. My ambitions remain the same as always. . . I just like to ride and keep riding."

Through Week

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League has extended its 1964 schedule into the week to include five Saturday games, a Friday night contest and two Monday night games in addition to the usual Thanksgiving Day special at Detroit.

Among the innovations in the 98-game schedule, announced today by Commissioner Pete Rozelle, are a Friday night home opener for the New York Giants with Washington, their first home night game since 1938 and Monday night dates in Detroit and St. Louis.

The season will open with a night game, Saturday, Sept. 12 in the Cotton Bowl, where the Dallas Cowboys will meet the St. Louis Cardinals. It will close Sunday, Dec. 13. The championship game will be played Sunday, Dec. 27 in the home city of the Eastern Conference champions.

Most of the games are televised regionally into the home area of the visiting team with the home city blacked out. The Columbia Broadcasting Company bought the rights for two years at $1.1 million a year, plus another $1.8 for the championship game.

CHICAGO (AP)—Joe Eiten of McHenry, Ill., moved into second place of the marathon Petersen Classic Bowlin' Tournament Wednesday night in the $4,500 event at Washington Park.

Northern Dancer Derby Favorite

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Northern Dancer, the little Canadian colt with the big heat, was the 1-5 favorite today to win the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland.

The Dancer, who is the 2-1 second choice behind Hill Rise to win the May 2 Kentucky Derby, met a field of four other Derby eligibles in the 1 1/4-mile Blue Grass—the last distance test before the classic.

The Blue Grass would gross $29,550 with all five starting.

Opposing Northern Dancer were G. M. Holsinger's Arkansas Derby winner Prince Davelle, Darby Dan Farm's Saltville, E. A. Aust's Royal Shuck and Dixiana Farm's Allen Adair.

Northern Dancer, who has earned more than $261,000 thus far, is owned by the Windfields Farm of E. P. Taylor Toronto. He was to be ridden by Bill Hertack, who also will be aboard in the Derby.

None of those opposing the powerful Canadian colt was given much of a chance at beating him, but a good showing from any would most likely earn them a starting berth in the Derby.

Allen Adair, a latecomer from Dixiana, seems to be the biggest threat to the Dancer.

Dodgers Not Only Lose Game But Koufax Too

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

While the Los Angeles Dodgers suffered from a growing headache in St. Louis today, Sandy Koufax was hot dog arm away—nursing his hot dog arm.

The Dodgers' ace left-hander was forced out of the game with the Cardinals Wednesday night after the first inning with an elbow inflammation and a slight muscle tear in his left forearm.

He returned to Los Angeles for an examination.

Before he left the game, Koufax unleashed a rare wild third strike that eventually led to Charley James' three-run homer and a 7-6 victory for the Cardinals.

It was the seventh straight defeat for the Dodgers, who have won just one game.

Dr. I. C. Middleman, St. Louis team physician, estimated Koufax would miss at least one or two pitching turns. He normally pitches every four days.

Elsewhere in the National League Wednesday night, Houston blanked Cincinnati 2-0, and San Francisco stopped Milwaukee 8-6. Rain halted Pittsburgh at Philadelphia and Chicago at New York.

In the American League, New York downed Chicago 3-0, Los Angeles nipped Detroit 3-2 and Minnesota edged Washington 7-6. Rain washed out Boston at Baltimore and Cleveland at Kansas City.

Koufax, whose 25 victories last season earned him the league's most valuable player award, got into trouble when Bill White swung and missed for the third strike. The ball got by catcher John Roseboro, though, and White reached first.

Koufax then walked Ken Boyer and gave up the home run pitch to James.

Carl Warwick and White later hit home runs, nullifying homers by the Dodgers' Frank Howard and Willie Davis. Curt Simmons won his second game for the Cardinals but needed help from Roger Craig.

Willie McCovey belted home runs in his first three times at bat for the Giants. He had a puny .080 batting average going into the game. His performance overshadowed the two home runs hit by the Braves' Joe Torre.

Willie Mays continued his torrid hitting pace, getting a single and a double.

Injured Bear Hunters Rescued

BARROW, Alaska (AP)—Four

polar bear hunters, two of them injured, were rescued Wednesday from the Arctic ice pack 85 miles northeast of Barrow, where they spent more than 48 hours after making a forced landing.

They were picked up in a light plane piloted by Bob Cooper of Fairbanks and flown to a larger plane on smoother ice nearby, which flew them to Barrow. They left behind their two damaged planes and a bear they had shot.

Pilot Jules Thibedeau had cuts on his face and Stan Dale, a passenger, an injured leg. Olly Huddleson, the other pilot, and Army Sgt. John E. De Frehn, the other passenger, were unhurt. All are from Fairbanks.

Faubus paid his $1,500 filing fee and his corrupt practices pledge Wednesday with the secretary of state.

Winthrop Rockefeller, the candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, said, "I certainly hope he (Faubus) doesn't have a dull summer."

Rockefeller said he meant he hopes Faubus has plenty of Democratic opposition in the primary to wear down his finances and his stamina before the general election campaign this fall.

"I feel confident he's much relieved now that he's finally made up his mind," Rockefeller said. "I'm glad to know that the issues are so clearly defined by his seeking a sixth term."

Former Gov. Sid McMath said again that he would not oppose Faubus this year. He said he believed Faubus could beat Rockefeller, but "Rockefeller will be a formidable opponent."

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, who opposed Faubus in 1960, said he would run for attorney general again. He had delayed his decision until after Faubus' announcement.

Dr. Dale Afford, a Little Rock ophthalmologist, repeated his statement that he would not run against Faubus a second time. He lost in the 1962 primary.

State Rep. Hardy W. Croxton of Rogers, rumored as a possible candidate, said again that he would not run for re-election to the Arkansas House.

U.S. Making Deadly Gas Just in Case

EDITOR'S NOTE—At a plant in western Indiana, the United States makes a deadly nerve gas in a race to stay ahead of any aggressor, just "so he won't be tempted."

By JAMES R. POLK

NEWPORT, Ind. (AP)—In a cloistered complex of buildings on a hill in western Indiana, the United States brews and bottles one of war's deadliest weapons. It is nerve gas, a stealthy assassin that is odorless, tasteless and virtually invisible. A drop, breathed or soaked into the skin, can kill.

At the end of an assembly line laced with 40 miles of pipes, the liquefied gas is poured into rockets, land mines and artillery shells—destination secret. The facility, housed in a former atomic energy installation now known as the Newport Chemical Plant, is the nation's major supply center for nerve gas. It has been in operation 24 hours a day for three years.

Details on the gas are secret, but a plant official describes it as "hundreds of times more toxic" than any commercial chemical.

An Army publication says only that the gas can "cause death within four minutes." A congressional report says less than a minute's exposure can kill.

"This stuff here was originally developed as an insecticide," says a vice president of the FMC Corp. which operates the plant under a government contract.

The chemicals which form the nerve gas are mixed and boiled in a plumber's nightmare of pipes, furnaces, pumping towers and reaction vats. At one point, the product looks like frozen milk.

In a separate building, the gas is pumped into rockets and other munitions by automatic equipment in a sealed compartment.

The equipment fills the rocket, X-rays it to measure the contents, rinses and dries it, and checks for leaks.

From Newport, the rockets and artillery shells are shipped in "normal Army supply channels," says Lt. Col. William J. Tisdale, officer in charge at the plant. He will say no more.

"Everything we have here we would like for the public to know, but we don't want the Russians to know," Tisdale explains.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It may be a "Bonanza" to NBC and all those connected with the Sunday night Western, but Pernell Roberts doesn't feel that way.

The rough-hewn Roberts is a member of the costarring team that includes Lorne Green, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon. The company has just completed its fifth season. Roberts has one more year to go under his contract and it can't expire too soon for him.

Roberts said his discontent started early. He tried out for "Bonanza" when he heard it was to be filmed in color; he figured NBC would make it a class show.

"They told me the four characters would be sharply defined, and the scripts carefully prepared," said Roberts. "None of this was put on paper. None of it ever happened."

"What I objected to most was the objective of the show. There has been an obvious effort to play it safe, to make 'Bonanza' a good family show that would offend no one and hit a consistent level of mediocrity."

He thinks the show has hit that mark with regularity. Over the past five years he has voiced his feelings in strong terms to the producers and the network. Sometimes he has evoked changes, sometimes not.

"People say, 'Why worry? You can laugh all the way to the bank.' If I'm doing something I don't believe in, I would a spray when its carrier explodes. It kills by attacking the body's cholinesterase, substance transmitting nerve signals for muscles to expand.

When this fluid is crippled, muscles continue to constrict and the body strangles its own vital organs. There is an antidote, atropine, but it must be injected quickly, and the gas gives no warning.

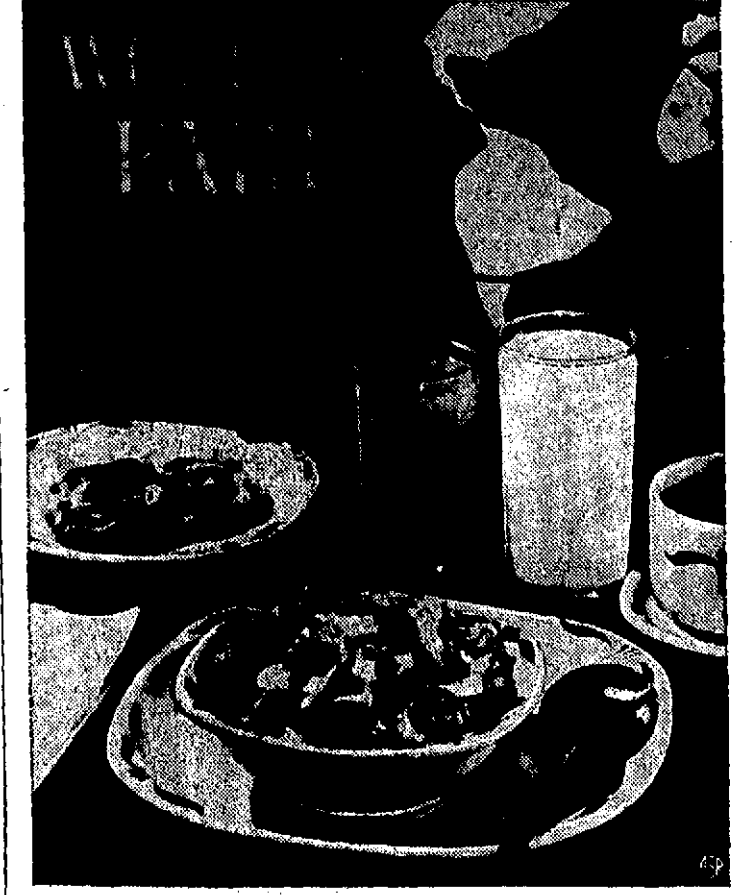

Manufacture is inexpensive. The Newport operation spends about $3½ million annually—less than the cost of one jet bomber.

The plant includes a complete hospital. Ten per cent of the operating budget is spent on safety. There has never been a plant fatality.

Contrary to popular belief, the United States is not bound by any treaties forbidding the use of nerve gas.

Tisdale describes the Newport operation simply as "a race to stay ahead of any aggressor so he won't be tempted."

Breakfast a "Must" for Busy Day at World's Fair

To get the most enjoyment out of a morning at the World's Fair, start the day with a good basic breakfast. Why is a good breakfast so important for a successful morning of sightseeing? Research at the State University of Iowa has demonstrated that the omission of breakfast results in decreased efficiency in the late morning hours. In other words, without a good breakfast, you and your family will be dragging your feet in the late morning hours instead of being alert and enjoying the Fair.

What is an adequate breakfast? It provides about one-fourth of the total daily caloric requirement and one-fourth the total daily protein allowance. Here is an adequate breakfast built around a basic breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter.

Breakfast For Those "On The Go"
Orange Juice, ½ cup
Corn Flakes, presweetened, 1 ounce, with Whole Milk, ½ cup
Sweet Roll, 1 teaspoon butter
Milk for beverage, 1 cup
Coffee, if desired

It's easy to adjust this breakfast menu for an active teen-age son, simply add some eggs and breakfast meats; for the weight-conscious teen-age daughter, use nonfat milk and toast in place of a sweet roll. At home or away, a basic breakfast pattern is a good plan to follow for an adequate breakfast for the whole family.

Hopeful That Nikita Holds Castro Down

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is trying to get Soviet Premier Khrushchev to keep a restraining hand on Fidel Castro's trigger finger when he gives the Cuban leader control of a modern arsenal of anti-aircraft missiles in the near future.

This is one of two motives behind an unusual series of public statements and secret diplomatic moves warning the Cubans against shooting down any of the U.S. photo-reconnaissance planes, which periodically fly over their island.

The other purpose is to try to get Prime Minister Castro and his advisers to understand that, as one official here put it, "We just won't tolerate any interference with those overflights, which are essential to our security."

Officials here say privately that if Castro shoots down a U.S. plane he will have to expect a quick and violent retaliation. But so far, no one in a position of authority has been willing to say what form such retaliation would take.

At the time a U.S. U2 photo reconnaissance plane was shot down over Cuba during the October 1962 missile crisis, there was widespread talk in Washington that if another such incident occurred the United States would knock out the Cuban anti-aircraft missile bases by selective bombing attack.

The latest of the new warnings to Cuba came from President Johnson Tuesday in talking to a group of newsmen at the White House.

"It is essential that we maintain surveillance and know whether any missiles are being shipped into Cuba. We will have to maintain our reconnaissance and over-flights," the President said.

"Any action on their part to stop that would be a very serious action. We have so informed them and their friends."

The President did not say what friends of the Castro regime he had in mind but the implication was clear enough that he was speaking of the Russians.

Ironically, the present uneasy fears of a new Cuban crisis arise from the apparently imminent success of the United States in achieving one of its major objectives—the withdrawal from Cuba of the last of the Soviet troops which went into the island in 1962 when the Soviet Union was installing nuclear missiles with which it could have launched a direct attack on the United States.

It was this action which pro-

Lewisville Boy Wins First Place

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Jim Pickern of Lewisville and Joe Eblen of Paragould have been selected to represent Arkansas at the National Science Fair in Baltimore, Md., in May.

Pickern was first place in the senior division in Zoology at the State Science Fair which ended Saturday at Arkansas State Teachers College here. He had a project on the learning ability of four rodents.

Eblen captured first place in the earth sciences division with a project on the mathematical process for lunar measurement.

Other first place winners were, by class:

duced the crisis which was broken when Khrushchev withdrew the missiles. Soon afterward he began a slow withdrawal of the combat forces which he had introduced and U.S. officials now expect the last contingent of around 3,000 officers and men to leave in the next two or three weeks.

In preparation for their departure, as the situation is understood here, the remaining Soviet forces have been training Cuban troops in the operation and use of modern and highly efficient anti-aircraft missiles which are capable of shooting down jet planes operating at very high altitudes, including the U2. There are 24 bases for the surface-to-air missiles—SAMS—and about 500 of the missiles themselves in Cuba, according to intelligence reports.

The big question mark in official Washington is whether Khrushchev will let Castro have complete control of these weapons.

The United States sent a note through Swiss diplomatic channels to the Cuban government on March 27, the State Department confirmed Tuesday, warning that it intends to keep the reconnaissance flights going.

In a statement Monday a State Department spokesman re-affirmed a declaration a year ago by Secretary Dean Rusk that any interruptions of the over-flights "could create a highly dangerous situation."

Monday night the Cuban government sent a note through Swiss channels back to Washington denying any U.S. right to fly planes over Cuba and saying that if a dangerous situation is created it will be U.S. responsibility.

Castro had used blunter language in a speech Sunday night. He said Cuba would no longer tolerate violations of its air space and implied that force might be used to stop over-flights.

Rules Married Students Can Be Denied

WYNNE, Ark. (AP)—A school board has the right to deny classroom attendance to married students in public schools, Circuit Judge Charles Light of Paragould held here Tuesday.

He upheld the Wynne School Board in denying a petition filed by Walter Gardner, operator of a Western Auto store here.

Gardner asked that the board be ordered to allow his daughter, Mrs. Sue Ellen Hamrick, 18, attend classes at Wynne High School. He contended that state law guarantees classroom education to anyone between the ages of six and 21.

Light ruled that a school board has the right to establish the rules on which a school district is operated in matters related to student marriages.

Mrs. Hamrick, a 12th grader, was married Dec. 23, 1963, to Frank Hamrick, a police radio operator, but the school board did not learn immediately of the marriage.

When the board found out about it, Mrs. Hamrick was removed from classes, but she was tutored by the school's rooms. She made three "A's" in and two "B's" at the last grading, Gardner said.

Gardner filed the suit when the board denied Mrs. Hamrick permission to attend the school prom last Saturday night, but she attended anyway at the advice of her attorney, Gardner said.

Hamrick graduated from Wynne High School in 1963. Gardner said the board's rule against allowing married students in the classrooms had been on the books three years.

He said Mrs. Hamrick had a 2-year-old daughter by a previous marriage that ended in divorce.

Simply Has a Love for Planes

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Jimmy C. Willis, 16, loves airplanes. That was the only apparent reason for his actions, officers said.

Shortly after midnight Tuesday, Willis took a plane from a hangar, got it started and, although he had never been at the controls of a plane—took off. Authorities said he flew for some three hours, almost crashing twice and finally landed after clipping several trees and badly damaging the plane. He escaped uninjured.

Feel Johnson Doing Well on Home Front

By ENDRE MARTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, in confidential reports many European embassies sent to their capitals, got an "A" in domestic affairs. But grading was deferred in his other major, foreign policy.

A number of Western diplomats, who cannot be quoted, speak with surprising frankness about these reports. Conversations with them reveal that the envoys have amazingly similar views about the Johnson administration.

The explanation for the flattering high mark in domestic affairs is simple. Johnson, the diplomats are saying, has achieved in a remarkably short time good working harmony with Congress, something which they say was on a sadly low level during the last period of the Kennedy administration.

In foreign affairs, however, grading had to be postponed because of what diplomats delicately described as Johnson's reserved attitude on most foreign policy questions which interest this country's European allies.

The envoys of course are aware that 1964 is an election year and that customarily domestic problems push foreign policy headlines into the background. It is also true, they concede, that the lull in East-West relations relieved the chief executive from making dramatic decisions.

But, one French-speaking diplomat spoke of noblesse oblige—in this case meaning that as the Western world's leader, the United States, election year or not, must continue to give guidance to the West.

There is an almost puzzling similarity among Western diplomats, the French excluded, mildly criticizing the administration's position on Charles de Gaulle. The words they use range from exaggeration to defeatism. De Gaulle is not Europe, the diplomats' reasoning goes. They feel the current Washington thinking grossly overstates the general's power to bring European integration to a halt or to create some kind of a third force.

Washington, it is felt, is apt to forget that De Gaulle brought to France, and through France to Europe, something which was badly needed: stability.

It is highly questionable, some of the diplomats maintain, that Europe would be more advanced on the road toward political integration if there were no De Gaulle. Integration is viewed as a most praiseworthy goal, but an almost Utopian one, especially under present conditions when Europe is pressed neither politically nor economically to hurry toward it.

Some of the Europeans, including at least one economic expert, also minimize Washington's concern about inflationary tendencies on the other side of the Atlantic. They do not deny the trend exists and that it could become serious, as was the case in Italy, but the economists are not unduly alarmed because, they say, Europe's economy is healthy.

There are some eyebrows raised over U.S. enthusiasm for the multilateral nuclear force, a project which should reach a new phase in June when an American destroyer is used to demonstrate its feasibility. Despite Washington's fervor, there is almost complete lack of joy among the Europeans, including those who consented to participate in the demonstration.

The U.S. contention that the force is a political necessity because it will serve as a safety valve against German nuclear ambitions, was termed by some as naive and met by others with a shrug. Should the time come—and nobody says it will—when the Germans believe they must have their own nuclear arms, neither their participation in a multilateral force nor any pact forbidding them to have them will serve as a deterrent, it was said.

Only one railroad had been built in Arkansas before the Civil War.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television, limited mostly to half-hour and hour shows, has the perennial problem of establishing characters quickly, effectively and unmistakably.

That is the reason that the medium continues year after year to use a handful of easily identified status symbols.

For instance, very rich people in televisionland drink a lot of rare liquor. It is found in decanters atop a living room bar, near a gleaming ice bucket and ice tongs, which they use.

As the characters move down the social and financial scale, drinking becomes progressively more primitive until we find inhabitants of flop house rooms pouring shots from the bottle into a water glass.

Women's costumes are often a strong clue to the character's social position. Wealthy women seem to float around the house all day in elaborate chiffon peignoirs, changing only occasionally into street clothes and expensive furs or extravagant ball gowns for a quiet evening at home.

Poor people, it can be noted, spend much time in their kitchens, and eat a lot. The men are likely to be in their shirt sleeves and the women wear practical aprons, and sometimes we see them with their hair in curlers.

Rich older men, the tycoon type, are usually cigar smokers—big, fat cigars. They almost always wear Homburgs, are rude, and drive around in big, fat limousines. Practically all other rich people drive convertibles, and the richer they are, the bigger the convertible. No one ever takes the key out of the ignition.

Rich women most often are terrible snobs if they are middle-aged or pretty wild and mentally disturbed if they are young. Either type speaks with a broad "a", which instantly denotes private school education.

Rich people have emotional troubles; poor people have financial troubles. Almost always the poor have better characters.

NEW YORK (AP)—It seems a little ironic that each year the motion picture industry puts its annual big show on television. It turned up again Monday night on ABC and as usual rammed on for more than two hours of envelope-opening, heartfelt thank you's and bits of entertainment and small talk.

As usual, it was lots of fun to watch. The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has been handing out its Oscars for 36 years and the ceremony and protocols now are pretty well established.

The viewer usually can depend on one of the women winners breaking into happy tears. Unfortunately, neither Patricia Neal, winner of the "best actress" award nor Margaret Rutherford, who won in the supporting role category, was present to accept the statue.

Sidney Poitier, chosen as the best actor, received tumultuous applause and received his

Economy, Not Togetherness

WASHINGTON (AP)—If you notice federal employees inching their desks closer, the motive may be economy—not togetherness.

Bernard L. Boutin, head of the General Services Administration, the government's house-keeping agency, estimated Tuesday that "each square foot reduction GSA is able to accomplish in the average per-employee square-foot-of-space-occupied produces an annual savings to the government in rental, maintenance, and operation cost approximating $1.5 million."

Boutin told the Senate-House Economic Committee that GSA succeeded last year in reducing the average from 130.3 to 146.8 square feet, saving $5 million.

award with obvious emotion.

Hollywood goes very white tie and ball gown on these occasions. It would appear, to judge from the dresses of the women stars who made the awards, that softly draped chiffons or richly beaded satins are currently the vogue for formal wear. High, extremely elaborate hair styles seemed most popular.

Generally the show went along smoothly with occasional interludes of song or commercials. There were a few moments when viewers may have worried about the extreme décolletage of a rather active performer.

Jack Lemmon proved an ingratating and easy-mannered host.

In 1924 the Government made the first effort to build roads in Arkansas. By 1928 the road from Little Rock to Memphis was opened, but for only limited traffic.

Poll Favors Nixon as GOP Choice

NEW YORK (AP)—A nationwide poll of Republican county chairmen and other party leaders named former Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the most likely winner of the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, however, was far ahead as the personal preference of the 1,606 persons participating.

The survey was the third such poll taken by The Associated Press.

In the survey, which began April 1, correspondents in 50 states and the District of Columbia questioned more than 3,000 county chairmen, vice chairmen, town leaders and other party officials.

There were two parts in the questionnaire—"Who is your personal preference to be the nominee?" and "Whom do you think the convention will nominate?"

Here are the results:
Most Likely to be Nominated
Nixon—526
Goldwater—427
Lodge—189
Scranton—159
Rockefeller—50
Others—19

No opinion expressed—223
Your Personal Preference
Goldwater—722
Nixon—301
Lodge—193
Scranton—191
Rockefeller—84
Others—27

No preference—88
The first Associated Press survey was made last October; the second in December after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

In the first poll Goldwater was a runaway. In the December findings—after President Johnson took office—Goldwater's political stock dropped sharply. Goldwater, however, continued to lead the field until Nixon passed him in one part of the April survey.

Some support in the first two polls went to both Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Viet Nam, and Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania. They received many more votes in the latest survey—this despite the fact that, like Nixon, they have not campaigned in any primary election nor said they are candidates for the nomination.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who is campaigning for the nomination, ran last in October and lost ground in both the December and April polls.

Appointments Are Confirmed

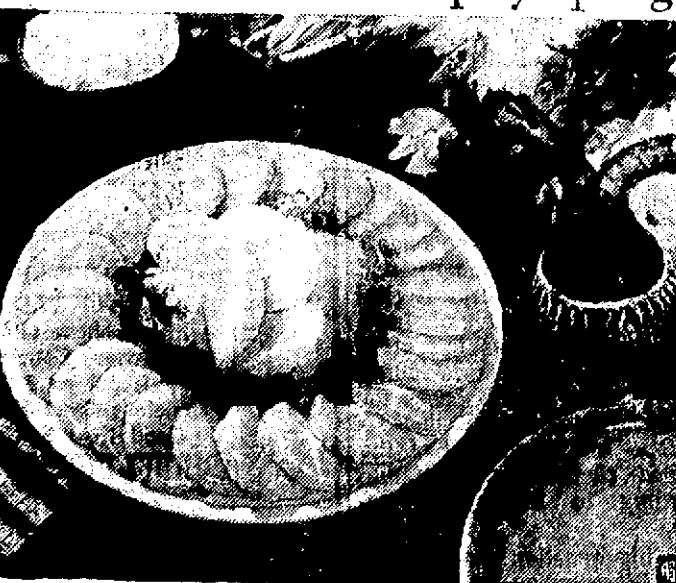

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed today the following Arkansas postmaster nominations by President Johnson:

Herbert L. Kent, Arkinda; Dolores W. Neal, Keo; Bernie S. Hargis Jr., Warren; Mable L. Harris, Wilmar; Burl King, Yellville.

Barry's Son Speaks

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Barry Goldwater Jr., son of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., will be at Little Rock Wednesday to promote his father's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination. Young Goldwater, 28, chairman of the National Youth for Goldwater Committee, will speak at a luncheon and hold a news conference. Proceeds from the luncheon will go to Sen. Goldwater's campaign fund.

Serve Citrus For A Shapely Spring

If you're on a diet this spring, are the foods you're relying on to take off pounds giving you plenty of good nutrition? One of the tastiest solutions to the question of what to have for a light luncheon or dinner is a luscious citrus salad. Plump, juicy grapefruit and the sweet, seedless Valencia oranges from Florida make a refreshing and healthful salad that's low in calories. Citrus, the best natural source of vitamin C, builds resistance to spring sniffles while it helps pare off pounds. Serve big salad platters like this often, adding cottage cheese and a low-calorie citrus dressing to your taste. Teamed with spring vegetables—tender scallions, baby carrot strips, watercress, endive and other greens—there's nothing more delightful.

Citrus Fruit Platter
6 Florida Valencia oranges 4 Florida grapefruit
Chill fruit before preparing. To peel grapefruit and oranges, cut slice from top, then cut off peel in strips from top to bottom, cutting deep enough to remove white membrane. Then cut slice from bottom. Or cut off peel round and round, spiral fashion. Go over fruit again, removing any remaining white membrane. To section grapefruit, cut along side of each dividing membrane from outside to middle of core. Remove section by section over bowl to retain juice from fruit. Slice peeled oranges crosswise 1/4-inch thick. Arrange on fruit platter using salad greens if desired.
YIELD: 8 servings.

Low-Calorie Citrus Dressing
2 tablespoons flour 1/4 cup lime or lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 1/2 teaspoons non-caloric liquid sweetener
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard 2 egg yolks, beaten
1 1/4 cups Florida orange juice
Combine flour, salt and dry mustard in top of double boiler. Gradually stir in orange and lime juice, liquid sweetener and beaten egg yolks. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cool. YIELD: 1 1/2 cups.
NOTE: 1 tablespoon of dressing contains about 16 calories.

Gains Good But Aren't Spectacular

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The economic good cheer radiated by President Johnson last week betokens no early boom; the gains he announced at two news conferences were good but definitely unspectacular.

Looking at the many business indicators now in hand for March, the first month of the massive federal tax cut, most government economists were:

First, a bit surprised that retail sales slipped slightly even though practically every wage-earner had more take-home pay; and

Second, considerably relieved to note that the modest gains provide neither reason nor encouragement for a whirl of higher prices.

Johnson broke the news on Thursday that national output hit a record rate of $608.5 billion in the first quarter, up nearly $37 billion from a year ago.

Most economists had expected something bigger. The $8.5-billion rise for the January-March quarter fell short by nearly $3 billion of the gain in the preceding quarter, and as somewhat smaller than even the quarter before that.

The sales volume of the nation's retailers—who had every right to expect a banner Easter month—declined 1 per cent from February after allowing for seasonal trends, according to the preliminary Commerce Department survey.

The volume of new orders booked by durable goods manufacturers dipped 2 per cent, the first decrease since fall.

Most other indexes rose. But the record seemed to substantiate the forecasts of the President's Council of Economic Advisors that the stimulative impact of tax reduction will be spread out over a period of two or three years.

The council's chairman, Walter W. Heller, told the Midwest Economics Association in Chicago Saturday that the first-quarter rise in Gross National Product is "directly on the projected course" laid out in his January forecast.

At that time the council predicted a total output of about $623 billion for 1964, or a gain of some 5½ per cent from the first to the final quarters.

"This hardly sounds indigestibly rapid," Heller said. Buying demand will not outstrip production, he said; there will still be much excess plant capacity; and unemployment is likely to be around 5 per cent at yearend, despite some improvement since January.

Another government economist, replying privately to a newsman's inquiry on the impact of the tax cut, said it would be premature to judge by the March statistics, but: "If you had to say something, you'd say there has been no visible effect. It will show up a bit later on."

There is wide agreement that the broad March gains cited by the President in his news conferences last Thursday and Saturday were still reflection of the anticipation of a tax cut, rather than the actuality.

Keep Baby Soft and Cuddly

Babies today are blessed with garments that are soft and downy, smooth and comfortable, easy for mother to put on and take off and easily laundered and cared for. Diapers to dainty dresses and booties to blankets, you can rinse softness into tiny towels and washables and eliminate static from the wide array of synthetics.

Add concentrated aqua blue fabric softener to the final clear rinse water to soften and fluff napped fabrics such as diapers and terries. It not only softens diapers but makes them more wrinkle free and helps prevent diaper "chafe." In the process of softening it makes the diapers easier to pin by lubricating the yarns. One capful of aqua blue fabric softener is sufficient for an average washer load. Use ¼ capful or less when laundering delicate articles by hand.

Corduroy garments remain soft, smooth and wrinkle-free. Ironing is speeded and in most cases eliminated. Even mistreated corduroy and chenille can be revived and a fluffy finish restored. Corduroys, blankets, chemises and knit garments should be removed from the dryer while still slightly damp since overdrying adds wrinkles and may cause shrinking.

Traffic Snarled, Negroes Arrested

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Nine Negroes were jailed Tuesday night after a traffic-snarling disturbance at the height of a Texas San Jacinto Day celebration.

Deputy Sheriff Jack H. Bonner said the persons denied they had deliberately stalled traffic at the Lynchburg ferry in sympathy with a stall-in proposed for today's opening of the New York World's Fair.

Bonner said the lead car of a 35-vehicle line refused to board the W. H. Hobby ferryboat. When officers arrived, he said, "it was a drunken mess." About 15 persons were arrested but only nine were charged. Two were released after paying fines.

Reds Mixed Up in Negro Rights Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has told a congressional subcommittee that "Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement."

The transcript of his Jan. 29 testimony, made public Tuesday, does not show whether he cited any specific examples.

The Communist party, he said in his appearance before a House Appropriations subcommittee, tries to expand its influence among Negroes and particularly has "sought ways and means to exploit the Negro civil rights movement."

The Communists, Hoover said, try to use "what are often legitimate Negro complaints and grievances for the advancement of Communist objectives." The number of Negroes who may be attracted to communist party membership "is not the important thing," Hoover said. He cited an old Communist principle that "communism must be built with non-Communist hands."

"We do know," he added, "that Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement and it is this influence which is vitally important. It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures."

At this point in the testimony Hoover asked to speak off the record, so the hearing transcript does not show whether he was asked for, or gave, any specific instances of Communist influence among Negroes.

Hoover, reporting on the FBI's activities, also described efforts by Communists to re-

A Tasty Treat—Cheesecake

Here's a fabulous cheesecake easily made with vanilla pudding and pie filling mix and crowned with a delicious pineapple glaze. It's a dessert worthy of becoming special company fare, and yet one easy enough to make so it can become a family favorite, too.

Cheesecake De Luxe

¾ cup finely crushed graham cracker or zwieback crumbs
1 tablespoon sugar
2 tablespoons butter, melted
1 package (8½ ounces) vanilla pudding and pie filling
¾ cup sugar
1 cup milk

1 cup canned pineapple pie filling (optional)
1 cup evaporated milk plus water to make 1 cup.
Combine crumbs, 1 tablespoon sugar, and butter; mix well. Grease sides of 9-inch spring-form pan to 1 inch from the top. Sprinkle about 2 tablespoons crumb mixture on sides of pan. Press remaining crumb mixture firmly on bottom of spring-form pan.

Combine pudding mix, ¾ cup sugar, and milk in a saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat, until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Cover surface of pudding with wax paper.
In large bowl beat cream cheese until fluffy, using low speed of electric mixer, or beating by hand. Add egg yolks, beat well. Add lemon juice, vanilla, nutmeg, salt and cooled pudding; blend well. Beat egg whites until soft rounded peaks will form; fold into cream cheese mixture. Pour over crumb mixture in spring-form pan. Bake in a hot oven (425°F.) 30 minutes, or until center is set when lightly touched and top is golden brown. (Cake becomes firmer when cooled.) Cool to room temperature. Spread with pineapple pie filling. Then store in refrigerator. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

U.S. Simply Can't Trust the Russians

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Almost 19 years of cold war secrecy, and all that it means in skepticism about Communists, has had a freezing effect on the American mind.

The reaction to a Communist move, even when it sounds peaceful, is almost predictable.

Suspicion of the Soviet Union popped up immediately in Congress Monday after President Johnson announced to an AP luncheon in New York and Premier Khrushchev disclosed in Moscow they were cutting production of material for nuclear weapons.

The suspicions went like this: "How do we know Khrushchev will keep his word? Will he let us into Russia to check to make sure? We need proof." In short, is he up to tricks?

But all this overlooks the point: In this case it doesn't matter whether he's playing tricks or not. Johnson said this country has more material for weapons than it needs.

Therefore, continuing to produce it without needing it is wasting money. Johnson put it this way: "We must not operate a WPA nuclear project just to provide employment when our needs have been met."

The Soviets have the same problem of overproduction of nuclear weapon material, so do the British, but Khrushchev in his announcement tried to pitch his decision on a lofty plane.

He said the cutback was an "opportunity for improving mutual understanding." The British tried to announce a cutback today. Actually they put the brake on last year.

Either Johnson is right or wrong in his decision. If he is wrong, he may be jeopardizing the country. But it must be assumed he would not have made his decision without the advice of his military and atomic experts.

So, if he's right, it can make no difference what Khrushchev does about cutting back. If the Russians have more material than they need but keep on producing it, then they're wasting money.

Another question was raised: Is this a step toward disarmament? Johnson anticipated such a question before making his announcement and answered it.

This is not disarmament. This is not a declaration of peace. But it is a hopeful sign and it is a step forward which we welcome and which we can take in hope that the world may yet one day live without fear of war.

In the case of disarmament the consistent American position has been that inspection would be needed, and it is easy to see why it would be needed in that case but not in Johnson's cutback decision of Monday.

If the United States and the Soviet Union for instance, agreed to destroy a certain number of missiles and nuclear warheads, this country could never be sure the Soviets were not cheating unless they permitted inspection.

Without such proof, this country would be a first-class sap to destroy a single one of its weapons for, if that continued, it could wind up at the mercy of the fully armed Russians.

But any disarmament agree-

Man Charged With Murder

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Wayne Newman, 34, of Newport was charged with first degree murder Tuesday in the death of Carl Davis, 46, of Newport. Davis died Monday in a Little Rock hospital. Deputy Pros. Atty. Phillip Hout said Davis and Newman were involved in a fight last week. Newman is in the Jackson County jail.

British and Russians Swap Spies

By JOHN O. KOEHLER
BERLIN (AP)—Britain exchanged Soviet spy Gordon Lonsdale today for British businessman Maynard Greille Wynne, jailed by the Soviets as a courier of espionage information.

The British Foreign Office said it agreed to the exchange because Wynne was ill. The exchange was made at the Heersstrasse crossing point between the British sector of West Berlin and East Germany at 5:35 a.m. and took just over 20 minutes.

Informants in London said Wynne was flown from Moscow to East Berlin. They said Lonsdale was taken from prison in Birmingham and flown to the British air force base at Gatow about five miles from the border point where the exchange was made.

Wynne, 45, was sentenced in detention—three in prison and Moscow last May to eight years five in a labor camp.

Lonsdale, 40, was sentenced to 25 years imprisonment in 1961 as the mastermind of a spy ring operating at the Portland naval research establishment.

Wynne's wife, Sheila, denied that he was ill. "He may be half the size he was when he started his sentence, but he's in splendid form," she said at her London home.

A family friend said Wynne was expected to arrive at his home this afternoon.

The Foreign Office said the Soviet Union proposed on April 7 to pardon Wynne if the British would free Lonsdale.

Wynne was on a business trip when he was arrested by Hungarian secret police. He was in Budapest in November 1962 tried in Moscow with Oleg Penkovsky, a Soviet official charged with selling atomic secrets to the West. Penkovsky was executed.

Wynne testified before the Soviet military court that the British intelligence service had duped him into serving as a courier. He said that for six months he never knew what was ment is a long way off. Johnson, ever since taking office, has been communicating with Khrushchev privately but reporters were told the two men's decisions of Monday were not a deal.

For the reasons explained above there didn't have to be a deal.

But that probably won't stop suspicions about the whole business although it would be hard to explain why this country should produce what it did not need, no matter what the Russians did.

It's possible that moves like this one by both countries may lead to better understanding, but that's for extra.

How to Avoid A "Housewarming"

Housewarmings can be fun, but the kind of housewarming brought on by the hot summer sun only results in personal discomfort or overloaded air conditioning.

Since as much heat penetrates the walls as any other area, people building new concrete block or brick cavity homes in the southern half of the nation should welcome these tips on the value of wall insulation.

Scientists at the Zonolite Division of W. B. Grace & Co. report that tests with water-repellent granules of the mineral vermiculite prove that wall insulation can markedly increase comfort and reduce cooling expenses. The material can be installed in only a few working hours.

Besides lowering the electricity cost of cooling, many homeowners have been able to immediately save the full cost of the insulation because smaller and less costly air conditioning units were required.

Homes with wall insulation often are quieter, too. In the tests with water-repellent vermiculite, loudness was cut between 20 and 31 per cent.

A Choice of Assassins

THE STORY: Don Fernando, do the chief of police at Cartama, uses Tani as an informer because there were irregularities on her passport. Now he questions her about the events at Domingo's tavern the previous night and she tells him the story.

"Malcolm offered to shoot himself for a drink. Domingo must have thought he was joking. He gave him a drink, and then a gun. But he wasn't joking. He tried to kill himself. Domingo saved him."

"A joke, eh? And that's all you can tell me?"

Tani looked at him and nodded slowly. "Don Fernando said, 'Do you know this American, Malcolm?'"

"He came here one morning. He wanted something to drink. He made no sense at all. Jorge had to put him out."

Don Fernando paced the floor slowly. He stopped and looked with distaste at the collection of tiny plastic animals on the coffee table. Finally he said, "I trust you. I hope you realize that. I trust you to help me. Do you understand why?"

She turned her head aside, as if she were expecting a blow. "I understand," she said wearily. "Precisely. I trust you because I know that you entered Spain illegally from Morocco. If I gave this information to the Provincial Governor, he might put you in jail. And it's worth remembering that our jails have not kept pace with recent progress and prosperity in Spain. They are unpleasant places."

"Policemen," she said sighing, but her soft voice made the word vile. "Naturally, you have a bad opinion of me," he said, as he began pacing again, restlessly and impatiently. "But even if I had no hold on you, I would trust you. I trust your brains, your discretion. It is strange, but I depend on you." He sat beside her and impulsively picked up her limp hand, but the touch of her flesh caused such a guilty warmth to spurt through him that he got quickly to his feet and began pacing again, shooting anxious glances at her from the corners of his eyes. "You imagine I am strong and secure," he said. "You think I take an unfair advantage of you, I know. Because you're a woman, and helpless, and all the rest of it. But it isn't true. I'm as weak as you are. It's funny, isn't it? I walk the streets of the village, middle-aged, full of dignity, I, Don Fernando Gonzalez who has led a blameless life, and yet I feel that the buildings on either side might fall and crush the life out of me at any moment. What can be the reason for that?"

Tani shrugged and said nothing.

In the packages he gave to and received from Penkovsky.

Testimony at Lonsdale's trial revealed that he had penetrated the British underwater naval research plant at Portland.

Convicted with him were two Americans, Peter Kroger, 50, and his wife, Helen, 47. They were later identified as Morris and Lona Cohen.

The Cohens, who operated a powerful shortwave radio station for Soviet intelligence, were sentenced to 20 years each.

Two Britons, Harry Houghton, 56-year-old admiralty clerk, and his fiancée, Ethel Gee, 45, both received 15 years for their part in Lonsdale's ring.

ing.

"Very well, let's talk of something more sensible," Don Fernando said irritably. "You know the American, Malcolm. Can you imagine where he is now? He sleeps in a comfortable room at the Pensione Royale with a terrace and a view of the sea. Clarke, the Englishman, sits with him like a nurse. Food and drink have been ordered for him, and Zarren, the Pole, is in the village this very moment trying to redeem his cameras and luggage. Does this make sense to you, Tani? Why should Domingo treat him like a brother?"

She said drily, "Perhaps he feels guilty at what he did to him."

"Yes, very likely. Domingo's last guilty thought probably occurred to him in his crime. He looked at her frowning. 'I want you to find out what it is between Domingo and the American. Never mind listening to college boys complain about our bad olive oil and rates of exchange. Forget all that nonsense for a while. If you are successful—' Don Fernando was so encouraged and stimulated by the hope that flared in her dark eyes that he reached down and gently patted the back of her hand. 'If you are, then there will be no difficulty about your passport.'"

"I can try, that's all," she said.

"Then you will succeed. For you can be a persuasive woman, Tani."

"But I can persuade you of nothing," she said bitterly.

"You dislike me, but you know only the worst side of me," he said. "That's the pity of my work. I can have no friends."

He bowed formally to her and left the room. Tani sat without moving for several moments, and then she sighed and slipped to the floor beside the coffee table and began to rearrange the positions of the brightly colored plastic animals. There was a childishly mischievous expression on her small face, as she moved a pink shepherd dog closer to the blue wolves which menaced her little herd of sheep.

Farm Not Wide But Plenty Long

GUYMON, Okla. (AP)—Need a farm 37 feet wide and 1½ miles long? Or perhaps 20 feet wide and a half-mile long?

These odd-shaped pieces of land—as well as regular tracts—in three Oklahoma Panhandle counties will be auctioned next month. The Bureau of Land Management said Tuesday. The land, amounting to 4,032 acres, is valued at $70,405.

The federal government still holds the land because it was never taken by a homesteader, or because it was lost in old surveying errors.

Peter Gutierrez, chief of the land section of the U.S. Land Office, Santa Fe, N.M., said main value of the land is to adjacent property owners who will get preferential treatment in acquiring the property, if they desire.

Agreement Near on Rail Negotiations

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Differences were reported narrowing today as negotiators bargained toe-to-toe with less than 72 hours remaining before the delayed deadline for a nationwide railroad strike.

Representatives of five unions and nearly 200 railroads were closely examining each other's proposals "decimal point by decimal point," said White House press secretary George Reedy.

President Johnson voiced hope again Tuesday that the two sides in the five-year-old work-rules dispute would come up with a voluntary settlement before Saturday's scheduled 12:01 a.m. strike deadline.

Johnson was reported so hopeful of an agreement by that time that he has not yet asked for any extension of the 15-day strike postponement he won April 10.

Talks with federal mediators were going virtually around the clock.

Sources close to both sides said the talks were in a highly crucial stage and that the outcome was still uncertain. Reedy said the two sides were engaged in "very thorough, very exhaustive, discussions" based on an exchange of working papers on their respective proposals.

The dispute involves a complicated system of work rules governing wages, job classifications and working conditions.

"There is a narrowing of differences, there is a clarification of language," Reedy said. Johnson speaking to a group of editors and broad casters visiting the White House Tuesday, said, "We think that collective bargaining is hard at work."

Johnson continued to refrain from saying what action he might take if the talks failed. He said he was proceeding on a presumption that the talks

World Aviatix Lands at Guam

HONOLULU (AP)—Aviatix Joan Merriam landed her twin-engine plane on the Pacific island of Guam Tuesday night on her round-the-world flight.

The 27-year-old Long Beach, Calif., housewife flew to Guam from Lae, New Guinea. She is nearing the end of a globe-circling trip, which began in Oakland, Calif.

She is following the route of the famed aviatrix Amelia Earhart, who disappeared with her male navigator over the western Pacific on a world flight attempt in 1937.

It would result in a voluntary solution before the strike deadline.

Hot Potato Salad for Gourmets

Hot potato salad, everybody's favorite the year around, can be as sharp or as mild flavored as the cook wishes it to be, but it should be so good-tasting that it could serve as a main dish.

Gourmet Potato Salad could be served as a main dish. It is piquantly flavored with bottled oil and vinegar dressing (use the Italian one for sharper flavor) and smooth, good-tasting, Miracle Whip Salad Dressing, which combines the best qualities of rich mayonnaise and old fashioned boiled salad dressing. The two dressings coax the sliced potatoes, flavoring vegetables, eggs, and cooked bacon to delectability in very little time.

Like all hot potato salads, Gourmet Potato Salad appears and tastes best when served in the same skillet in which it was made—no extra tossing and transferring is done to destroy the beauty of each ingredient, and the salad stays warm until every last portion is served.

Accompany the salad with frankfurters on buns and tall glasses of iced tea, if you wish, or serve it with a platter of sliced cold meats and cheese and hard rolls for a pleasant supper menu.

Gourmet Potato Salad

- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup Kraft Oil and Vinegar Dressing or Kraft Italian-style Dressing
- 1 quart sliced cooked potatoes
- 1/2 cup Miracle Whip Salad Dressing
- 6 slices crisply cooked bacon, crumbled
- 3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper

Cook onion and green pepper in liquid dressing until tender. Stir in remaining ingredients; heat.

Candidates Getting Some Bouncier

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Watching President Johnson and the Republicans would be presidents is like watching a bedside lamp trying to compete for attention with an all-night neon sign.

He has been getting bouncier and livelier, talking more and doing more, ever since he moved into the White House, perhaps as his confidence increased. But something which happened recently really seemed to charge his batteries.

While public opinion polls put him away in front of any Republican, last Wednesday visiting newspaper editors decided it was not a question of whether he would win in this election year but only by how much.

He has been outdoing himself ever since: A news conference the next day, a meeting with the editors Friday, a news conference Saturday, handshaking Sunday, a big foreign policy speech Monday, another news conference Tuesday.

Most of the time on these occasions he made announcements that got headlines.

The Republicans are whirling around and popping off practically every day.

They criticize him or they offer solutions for the ills here and elsewhere, all the time talking politics, and playing it. His advantage is that he can play politics without mentioning it.

While they sound like a voice in the hills, he gets a big play just by saying something or doing something as President, if it's only shaking hands with tourists or walking in the White House rose garden.

This lucky political position of a president in an election year has been true of every president but none ever realized it better than Johnson or sought to make more use of it.

He has been a politician 24 hours daily since he came to Congress in 1937 but never more so than when he repeats he just wants to be president of all the people and indicates he wouldn't think of talking politics until the campaign begins.

President John F. Kennedy stayed busy trying to keep the public reminded of him. But in this Johnson is outdoing Kennedy who was a master at it.

He can get more attention just dancing, and he loves to dance, than a Republican presidential hopeful like Harold Stassen if he shouted through a bullhorn all day.

Johnson is probably the greatest White House dancer since Theodore Roosevelt, if Roosevelt danced. If not Roosevelt, then it would have to be someone back in the 19th century.

Although come to think of it, if Calvin Coolidge danced that would have been an exciting spectacle.

A good example of how Johnson keeps himself in the news is to check the front pages of newspapers for the past two weeks. There was hardly a day when he didn't do or say something to put him there.

He got a lot of mileage out of the threatened rail strike alone: calling labor and management together, getting the strike pushed off, getting agreement on another 15 days of negotiation, making hopeful statements about the outcome.

Besides that, and going backward for the past two weeks by day, here is part of what Johnson did:

Education to Be Issue of Campaign

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus predicted Tuesday night that increasing financial support for education, expanding the state park system and building rural roads will be the main issues of this year's gubernatorial campaign.

Faubus discussed probable issues on a television show, "Face Your State," on KTHV Channel 11.

He freely discussed the issues and possible candidates, but he did not reveal his own plans. He left his announcement for a special news conference scheduled for 9:30 a.m. today.

He did say that there was no substance to persistent reports that he would pull out of the governor's race and run for Congress in the Third District as part of a deal under which Rep. J. W. Trimble, D-Ark., of Berryville, would retire because of ill health.

Faubus said his own health was excellent. "Actually, I feel better than I have since World War II," he said, explaining that he had an allergy which doctors recently had cleared up with immunization treatment.

Faubus said taxpayers realize that more money must be provided for schools at both the local and state levels. "There's no dispute about this," he said. "It's just a matter of how fast we can do it."

The main area of need is in teacher salaries, the governor said, adding, "Teachers in Clay County can go across the state line and make $1,000 a year more in Missouri. This isn't right."

Faubus said last year that if he sought a sixth term he would make rural roads one of the planks in his platform. He said Tuesday night he is not ready to discuss methods of financing the program.

"But if I am a candidate, and if I am successful, I'll call for ideas and I'll use the best ideas in making up the program," he said.

Faubus prefaced almost every statement with the qualification, "If I am a candidate."

He said his latest political polls "look good" but he would over to make a check; announced cutback in material for nuclear weapons; shook hands with tourists after church; raised the possibility of ending the draft within 10 years and tossed out a barrel of figures on the economy; talked about the job of the presidency; another report on the economy and a warning to both sides in the civil rights dispute to use moderation; had his picture taken with Jordan's visiting King Hussein; threw the opening pitch of the baseball season and ordered a freeze on government employees' grades and salaries; welcomed Soviet Premier Khrushchev as a peace apostle.

In case anyone thinks he may slow down after all this: Today he arranged to go to New York and make a speech opening the World's Fair.

Goldwater Favorite in Arkansas

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Republican county chairmen in Arkansas are more confused today about their party's presidential candidates than they were last year.

But an Associated Press poll shows that in April—as it did in October and again in December—Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater is the favorite in Arkansas.

Forty-one chairmen answered the poll and 21 listed Goldwater as their personal choice for the nomination. Eleven named Richard Nixon. Three votes went to Henry Cabot Lodge, three to Nelson Rockefeller, one each to George Romney and William Scranton.

The chairmen were less sure when they were asked to forecast which candidate their party will choose at the National Convention. Nixon was almost as strong as Goldwater in this department. Nine named him, 10 the Arizona senator. Four named Lodge three Nelson Rockefeller, one Scranton.

Proof of confusion is shown in the fact that 14 of the chairmen could not name a favorite candidate at this time.

Goldwater's 51 per cent support from the answering chairmen marked a comeback in his popularity. He was the choice of 71 per cent in October but he got only 34 per cent in December when his stock — both nationally and in the state — plummeted after the death of President Kennedy.

The latest poll showed almost no support remaining for Nelson Rockefeller, even though his brother, Winthrop Rockefeller, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Arkansas.

Nelson was the choice of six chairmen in October, of four in December.

Questioned about Winthrop Rockefeller's chances in Arkansas, the chairmen said almost unanimously that they believe he can beat Gov. Orval E. Faubus, the likely Democratic nominee.

The Goldwater supporters still see his avowed conservatism as a main campaign weapon against the Democrats.

"He's the man most qualified for the job and the salvation of the country," said W. Harold Bynum of Chicot County.

The Nixon supporters are still counting on a collapse of support for the hard-running candidate—Goldwater and Rockefeller—which will get their man the nomination for the second time.

Several who supported Goldwater as a personal choice said they feel he has little chance to get the nomination. Most of these listed Nixon as a second choice.

Lodge's write-in victory in on the Arkansas chairmen. One called him "The candidate the Democrats are trying to give us."

Mail Shows North Against Rights Bill

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A somewhat unusual trend is evident in the mail being received by Arkansas senators as the debate on the civil rights bill continues.

The bulk of the mail to offices of Sens. John L. McClellan and J. William Fulbright in opposition to the bill comes from outside Arkansas, quite a bit of it from Northern states.

In past filibusters, or debates, on civil rights bills about the only mail which senators from Arkansas and other southern states received came from their constituents.

McClellan's staff says his civil rights mail has been fairly heavy, but most is from out of state mainly from California, Michigan and New York.

Similarly, aides of Fulbright said he is getting more mail from other states, chiefly from southern states but with a good sprinkling from northern states, including California, Michigan and New York.

Aides of both Senators figure the mail from Arkansas is relatively light since both are known to be strongly opposed to the bill.

Mail Shows North Against Rights Bill

While the McClellan mail, his staff said, is virtually all opposed to the measure, some of the Fulbright mail—both from Arkansas and elsewhere—urges that he support the bill.

Although the civil rights mail is heavy, it is by no means coming in record volumes at either office.

A few years ago McClellan was virtually snowed under as a result of the televised Army-McCarthy hearings. The mail came in by the sackful.

At present Fulbright is being deluged by mail as a result of his recent foreign policy speech in which he urged a re-examination of U.S. foreign policy and called on the people to "think about unthinkable things" and to discard old myths.

To date, his staff reports, he has received about 10,000 letters, about 75 per cent of them endorsing his view.

While the Arkansas mail on the speech at first ran equally for and against, his staff now reports an increase in letters from constituents who endorse his views. The aides figure the Arkansas mail now runs about 60 per cent for, 40 per cent opposed.

McClellan made a 5-hour Senate talk this week opposing the civil rights bill and reported he

Murderers Get Sentences Cut

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus reduced Tuesday the terms of three convicted two-convicted of murder.

The life sentence given Jake Eichelberger of Wrightsville was shortened to 60 years. He was sentenced May 22, 1944, in Pulaski County Circuit Court for killing Carl Cunningham in a fight.

Faubus reduced to six years the 15-year sentence given Willie Morgan of England on March 16, 1962, in Pulaski Circuit Court on a second degree murder charge. He was convicted in the shooting death of his wife, Otella.

The 15-year term given Huston W. Jones, 20, of Plainview on Aug. 21, 1961, in Yell County Circuit Court was reduced to 10 years. Jones was convicted of burglary, grand larceny and arson.

McNamara promised to re-examine the closing order.

Tea And Transportation

Camel caravans swayed across deserts and mountains on journeys lasting as long as 18 months to bring tea to Eastern Europe from China in the 17th Century.

A thrilling sight in the 19th Century were the noble tea clippers. Specially designed for speedy transportation of tea, the tall sailing ships often raced one another from China to London or New York for prizes of thousands of dollars.

Today, ocean liners and tramp steamers carry tea cargoes in their holds to ports all over the world. From these ports the tea goes to the processors and finally reaches tea drinkers blended and packed in three different ways—loose, teabags or instant.
